

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law. I don't want people calling me unless I ask them too. The needs of the people should be considered over the selfish desires of corporations.